Gidday Mike

Been watching NZ being handed over to Māori radicals over the last two terms of government. Can still hear you saying on countless occasions that this would happen. Interesting looking back at what didn't but should have happened when we were there. So much for public reps aye.

D fall in most of the stuff that really mattered.

Deb and I sold the farm and living on Sunshine Coast in Queensland.

Deb is an Ozy. Our daughter is in Melbourne and engaged to a Pom who moved to Oz from England.

Our son also married an Ozy chick and they had twins 12 months ago.

Not many options left for staying in NZ after all that Mike.

How are you doing?

I know you've got grandkids too. Must be going on 10 years old by now I'm guessing.

When you come this way give me a call
